

Your Partner for Rapid Employer Verifications

Employer Verifications From Equifax

Customers expect rapid approvals when buying a home, leasing a vehicle, or starting a new job, and instant reports from Equifax speed up the process. When reports are not available, customers are left with the burden to prove they are employed. Equifax can quickly move the application along with Employer Verifications.

Strengthen application standards with directly sourced information from employers improving speed, reliability and accuracy:

- Shorter fulfillment times ➤ less administrative processing
- Increased application speed ➤ increased revenue
- More effective segmentation ➤ increased profitability
- Reduced friction ➤ an improved user experience
- Accurate risk assessment ➤ high-quality applications
- Improved employee productivity ➤ reduced expenses
