Online Triggers

Proactively monitor commercial accounts to minimize risk

Are you often blindsided by accounts that have seemingly become delinquent overnight? Or are you spending hours upon hours manually reviewing each account for signs of financial distress? Online Triggers from Equifax Canada will proactively monitor your accounts and provide timely notification of risk level changes so you can act quickly to minimize any negative impact to your bottom line.

Identify exception accounts that require immediate attention

Online Triggers automates the account monitoring and review process enabling you to focus your time and attention on other important tasks. For those accounts that do trigger an alert, summary information is provided for the account including scores, negative and positive occurrences and tradeline details. You'll have the relevant information needed to make quick decisions and apply appropriate treatment strategies.

With Online Triggers you get:

Customizable Monitoring: Browse, select, combine, and refine monitoring criteria for your submitted accounts.

Flexible Alerts: Determine alert notification intervals and view alerts by reporting period or full history.

Comprehensive Overviews: See at-a-glance totals for monitored accounts and alerts generated.

Efficient Alert Management: Filter, sort, and search alerts based on various fields.

Integrated Reporting: Preview and export standard or customized reports, and access Business Credit Reports directly from the application.

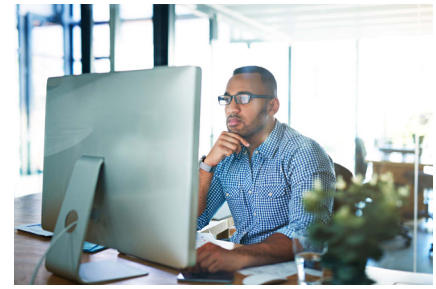

Key benefits

- ✓ Minimize losses from accounts that may have impending financial problems
- ✓ Improve efficiency by focusing account management efforts on high-risk accounts
- ✓ Enhance both risk management and marketing activities by identifying both positive and negative activity within your accounts
- ✓ Increase productivity by reducing time-consuming manual review processes
- ✓ Easily set criteria and manage alerts via a convenient online interface

For a more in-depth view of account risk and opportunities, use Online Triggers monitoring with the Online Gold Portfolio Management service.

Conveniently manage your account monitoring criteria and alerts

With a convenient web interface, Online Triggers offers more flexibility for setting criteria and managing alerts. You can adjust criteria as needed without engaging IT resources or waiting for lengthy change requests to be processed. Advanced reporting functionality enables you to run pre-defined reports or set report parameters based on how you wish to view the data.
