

Kate Walker

Chief Marketing and Communications Officer

Kate Walker is Chief Marketing and Communications Officer for Equifax, responsible for ensuring strong alignment across the enterprise with the company's EFX2027 Strategic Priorities and overseeing the company's global brand, web, communications, and enterprise content strategies.

Walker joined Equifax in 2019, and previously served as Chief Communications Officer charged with the company's global internal and external communications strategies. Prior to that, she worked as the company's U.S. Information Solutions Communications Leader, driving awareness for Equifax insights and differentiated data solutions across the U.S. Before joining Equifax, she was a Partner and Senior Vice President at Silicon Valley-based McGrath/Power Public Relations for more than a decade. She has also held global communications positions at Borland Software Corporation (now part of OpenText) and Internet Security Systems (now IBM Internet Security Systems).

Walker holds a bachelor's degree from Trinity College in Hartford, CT. She currently serves on the Board of Directors for CHRIS 180, an Atlanta-based provider of foster care and adoption services, counseling, and community support for children and young adults.
