- (k) to enable a person to know his own credit information.

CHAPTER VI PRIVACY PRINCIPLES

10. In addition to the principles and procedures as provided in section 20 of the Act, every credit information company, credit institution and specified user, shall adopt the following privacy principles in relation to their functioning, namely:-

(a) Care in collection of credit information:

(i) Every credit information company shall take all such necessary precautions, in respect of information received or collected by it so as to ensure that such information is -

(A) properly and accurately recorded, collated and processed;
and

(B) protected against loss, unauthorised access, use, modification or disclosure thereof.

(ii) Every credit institution shall -

(A) keep the credit information maintained by it, updated regularly on a monthly basis or at such shorter intervals as may be mutually agreed upon between the credit institution and the credit information company; and

(B) take all such steps which may be necessary to ensure that the credit information furnished by it, is update, accurate and complete.

(b) Access to, and modification of, the credit information:

(i) Every credit information company shall -

(A) establish and adopt procedures relating to disclosure to a person, upon his request, his own credit information and subject to his satisfactory identification; and

(B) provide reasonable time and opportunity to such person for establishing his identity and the credit information company may call for his personal attendance, if so necessary, and production of such other documents as may be necessary as proof of his identity.

(ii) Every specified user on receipt of a request as per sub-section (3) of section 21 of the Act, from a client or a borrower, as the case may be, for updating of his credit information, shall intimate about such request to the credit information company which had furnished such credit information to the specified user.

(iii) Every credit information company on receipt of the intimation from a specified user, shall intimate about the request made by the borrower or the client, as the case may be, the credit institution which had furnished such credit information to the credit information company .

(iv) Every specified user, credit information company, and credit institution, shall take prompt action in relation to updating of the credit information and to send the intimation and their response with proper co-ordination amongst them so as to ensure that the requisite action is taken in this behalf within the time limit as provided under sub-section (3) of section 21 of the Act.

(c) Data use limitation :

Obligation to disclose.- Every specified user, in case of denying credit or any other service to a borrower or a client, as the case may be, on the basis of his credit information report within thirty days of its such decision shall -

(A) send a written intimation to such borrower, or the client about the rejection ;

(B) include in such intimation the specific reasons for rejection;

(C) forward a copy of the credit information report relied upon for such decision; and

(D) also provide the name and address of the credit information company which had provided the credit information report to the borrower or client, as the case may be.

(d) Length of preservation of credit information:

(i) every credit information company and credit institution shall retain credit information collected, maintained and disseminated by them for a minimum period of seven years.

(ii) Every credit information company and credit institution shall develop guidelines and procedures to be adopted by them, with the approval of the Reserve Bank in respect of preservation and destruction of credit information.

11.Principles and procedures relating to personal data .-(1) Every credit institution, credit information company and specified user, as the case may be, shall adopt the following principles and procedures in respect of;

- (a) the manner and purpose of collection of personal data;
- (b) solicitation of personal data from individual concerned;
- (c) their extent of accountability; and
- (d) for redressal of grievances of individuals in respect of personal data.

(2) Manner and purpose of collection of personal data. - No credit institution or credit information company, or specified user, as the case may be shall collect, or publish or disclose, personal data except for the purposes relating to their functions:

- (a) as per the provisions of the Act, or their activities incidental or relating to their such functions; or
- (b) in relation to their capacity and function as an employer of an individual who is or has been in their employment.

(3) Solicitation of personal data from an individual. - In case of collection and use of personal data as per this regulation, by a credit institution, credit information company, or a specified user, as the case may be, they shall take such steps as are, in the circumstances, reasonable to ensure that, before such data is collected or, if that is not practicable, as soon as practicable after such data is collected -

(a) the individual concerned is informed of the purpose for which such data is being collected, or disclosed, or used, as the case may be; and

(b) such data maintained by them is protected against any loss, or unauthorized access, or use, or modification or disclosure, thereof.

(4) Length of preservation of personal data. - (i) Every credit information company and credit institution shall retain personal data collected, maintained and disseminated by them for a minimum period of seven years.

(ii) Every credit information company and credit institution shall develop guidelines and procedures to be adopted by them, with the approval of the Reserve Bank in respect of preservation and destruction of personal data.

Explanation:- For the purpose of this regulation, “personal data” means such other data relating to an individual other than what a credit institution, or a credit information company, or a specified user, is permitted to collect as per the provisions of the rules made under the Act.

CHAPTER VIIMAXIMUM AMOUNT OF FEES

(2) Words and expressions used and not defined in these rules but defined in the Act or the Information Technology Act, 2000 (21 of 2000), shall have the same meanings respectively assigned to them in the said Acts.

CHAPTER II

APPEAL

3. Appellate authority.- The Central Government, or such other Authority or Tribunal as may be designated subsequently by the Central Government as per sub-section (1) of section 7 of the Act shall be the Appellate Authority for the purpose of sub-section (1) of section 7 of the Act.

4. Form and procedure of appeal.- (1) An appeal as per the provisions of sub-section (1) of section 7 of the Act, shall be presented in Form 1 in duplicate by an aggrieved credit information company, or its agent or by a duly authorised legal practitioner, before the appellate authority or shall be sent by registered post addressed to such authority with acknowledgement duly addressed to the appellate authority or any other officer authorised in writing by the appellate authority to receive the same.

(2) An appeal sent by post under sub-rule (1) shall be deemed to have been presented to the appellate authority on the day on which it is received in the office of the appellate authority.

5. Sitting of appellate authority. - The appellate authority shall hold its sitting either at a place where its office is situated or at such other place as it may deem fit.

6. Language of appellate authority. - The proceedings of the appellate authority shall be conducted in English or Hindi and the appeal, application, or any other document submitted before the appellate authority, shall be in such language and in case any of such documents is in a different language, the translation thereof in English or Hindi shall be required to be produced.

7. Appeal to be in writing. - (1) Every appeal, application, reply, representation or any other document filed before the appellate authority shall be typewritten, cyclostyled or printed neatly and legibly on one side of the good quality paper in double space and separate sheets consecutively numbered shall be stitched together and filed in the manner as provided in sub-rule (2).

(2) The appeal under sub-rule (1) shall be presented in duplicate duly signed by the agent of the aggrieved company or the credit information company, as the case may be.

8. Contents of memorandum of appeal. - (1) Every memorandum of appeal filed under rule 4 shall set forth concisely under distinct heads, the grounds of such appeal without any argument or narrative and such grounds shall be numbered consecutively.

(2) For seeking an interim order or direction, appropriate submissions and relief prayed for in respect thereof may be included in the memorandum of appeal and it shall not be necessary to present separate application or memorandum in this behalf.

9. Documents to accompany memorandum of appeal. - (1) Every memorandum of appeal shall be accompanied with copies of the order against which the appeal is filed and the documents relied upon by the appellant.

(2) Where the appellant is represented by an agent, or any of its officers before the appellate authority, the document authorising him to act in such capacity shall also be appended to the memorandum of appeal.

10. Presentation and scrutiny of memorandum of appeal. -

(1) If, on scrutiny of the appeal received, it is found to be in order, the same shall be duly registered by the secretariat of the appellate authority and given a serial number.

(2) If on scrutiny, an appeal is found to be defective and the defect is such that it could be allowed to be rectified, the appellate authority may grant time not exceeding thirty days for such rectification and direct its secretariat to communicate to the appellant the defect and the time granted for its rectification.

(3) If the appellant fails to rectify the defect within the time as allowed for the purpose as per sub-rule (2), the secretariat shall submit the report of such failure of the appellant for consideration of the appellate authority, who may by an order and for reasons to be recorded in writing, decline to register the appeal and direct the secretariat to communicate such order to the appellant within seven days from the date of the order.

(4) If the appellant submits any representation within a period of fifteen days from the date of receipt of communication as per sub-rule (3), with sufficient explanation in respect of its failure to rectify the defect within the time granted for the purpose as per sub-rule (2), the secretariat shall submit such representation for consideration of the appellate authority.

(5) The appellate authority may, subject to its satisfaction about the sufficiency of the explanation furnished as per sub-rule (4), by an order and for reasons to be recorded in writing, review the order passed under sub-rule (3) and grant further time not exceeding fifteen days for rectification of the defect, or may reject the representation in case such explanation is not found to be satisfactory, and any such order passed by the appellate authority shall be final.

11. Notice of appeal to the respondent. - A copy of the memorandum of appeal along with the copy of the documents submitted therewith, shall be served by the secretariat of the appellate authority on the respondent as soon as the appeal is registered as per sub-rule (1) of rule 10, by hand delivery, or by registered post or speed post.

12. Filing of reply to the appeal and other documents. - (1) The respondent may file reply in duplicate to the appeal along with documents, in the secretariat of the appellate authority, within one month of the service of the notice on him of the filing of the memorandum of appeal.

(2) The respondent shall also endorse one copy of the reply to the appeal along with documents filed as per sub-rule (1) to the appellant.

(3) The appellate authority may, in its discretion on an application by the respondent, allow the filing of the reply after the expiry of period referred to in sub-rule (1).

13. Date of hearing to be communicated. - (1) The appellate authority shall fix the date and place of hearing of the appeal and direct its secretariat to communicate the same to the appellant and the respondent in the manner as the appellate authority may by general or special order direct.

(2) The appellate authority may subject to its satisfaction adjourn the hearing of the appeal, if so requested by any of the parties to the appeal.

14. Hearing of appeal.- (1) On the date fixed for hearing or the next date in case of adjournment, the appellant and the respondent shall be given due opportunity for putting forth their submissions in support of their plea.

(2) The appellate authority may allow the parties to submit their written arguments in addition to their oral arguments.

(3) In case of non-appearance of the appellant on the date fixed for hearing or the next date in case of adjournment, the appellate authority may, in its discretion adjourn the hearing or may dispose of the appeal on merits.

(4) Where an appeal has been disposed off as per sub-rule (3) and the appellant appears afterwards and furnishes satisfactory explanation for non-appearance on the date when the appeal was decided ex-parte, the appellate authority may subject to its satisfaction about the explanation, set aside the ex-parte order and restore the appeal and decide the same on merits after hearing the parties.

15. Order to be signed and dated.- (1) Every order of the appellate authority shall be in writing and shall be signed and dated by the appellate authority passing the order.

(2) During the pendency of the appeal, the appellate authority shall have powers to pass such interim order as it may deem fit including one of an injunction, subject to reasons to be recorded in writing, which it considers necessary in the interest of justice.

CHAPTER III

STEPS AND SECURITY SAFEGUARDS TO BE TAKEN BY CREDIT INSTITUTIONS FOR ENSURING ACCURACY, COMPLETENESS AND PROTECTION OF DATA

18. Steps for security and safeguards to be taken by credit institution. - Every credit institution, in existence in India on the commencement of these rules, before the expiry of three months from such commencement, and every other credit institution before the expiry of three months of commencing their business in India, shall formulate appropriate policy and procedure, duly approved by its

Board of Directors, specifying therein the steps and security safeguards, to be adopted in their operations relating to -

- (a) collection, processing and collating of data, information and credit information by them relating to their borrower or client;
- (b) steps to be taken for ensuring security and protection of data, information, and credit information maintained by them;
- (c) appropriate and necessary steps for maintaining an accurate, complete and updated data, information and credit information, in respect of their borrower or client, and to ensure the accuracy and completeness thereof while furnishing the same to a credit information company or making disclosure thereof to anyone else in accordance with the provisions of the Act; and
- (d) transmitting data, information and credit information through secure medium.

19. Collection of data and maintaining credit information. - (1) A credit institution shall -

- (a) collect all such relevant data in respect of its borrower or client, as it may deem necessary and appropriate for maintaining an accurate and complete data, information and credit information in respect of such borrower or client; and
- (b) use such data, information and credit information subject to the provisions of the Act.

(2) Without prejudice to the generality of the policy and procedure to be adopted as per rule 18 and sub-rule (1) with respect to collection and maintaining of data, information and credit information in relation to its borrower and client, a credit institution shall also collect all relevant and authentic available data and information as per Form-II for preparing, maintaining credit information in relation to them and for establishing their identity.

20. Accuracy of data provided by a credit institution.- (1) Every credit institution before furnishing data or an information or credit information to a credit information company or making disclosure thereof to anyone else in accordance with the provisions of the Act shall ensure that the credit information is accurate and complete with reference to the date on which such information is furnished or disclosed and adopt appropriate procedure in this behalf with the approval of their Board.

(2) If, for any reason beyond control, it is not possible for any credit institution to furnish credit information as per sub-rule (1), such credit institution while furnishing the credit information to a credit information company or making disclosure thereof to anyone else, shall make a remark with reference to the date up to which the accuracy and completeness of the credit information has been verified and found to be correct.

(3) Subject to the provisions of sub-sections (2) and (3) of section 21 of the Act, in respect of alteration and updating of credit information on request of a borrower in accordance with the said provisions, if a credit institution after furnishing the data or information or credit information, to a credit information company or making disclosure thereof to anyone else, in accordance with the Act, discovers of its own, or is informed about, any inaccuracy, error or discrepancy therein the credit institution shall -

- (a) latest by third day, send the intimation to the credit information company or the individual, as the case may be, of such inaccuracy, error or discrepancy;
- (b) take immediate steps to correct such inaccuracy, error or discrepancy; and
- (c) the credit institution shall forward the corrected particulars of the data or information or credit information, as the case may be, to the credit information company or the individual, as the case may be, within period of twenty one days from the date when the credit institution had discovered such inaccuracy, error or discrepancy or information in respect thereof was given to it.

(4) If, for any reason beyond its control, it is not possible for a credit institution to take immediate steps as per sub-rule (3), such credit institution shall inform the credit information company or the individual, as the case may be, of the steps taken by it for correction of the inaccuracy, error or discrepancy and also the reasons for its inability to comply with the provisions of sub-rule (3) within the time stipulated therein.

(5) Any credit institution failing to take steps as per this rule, without any sufficient reason shall be liable for contravention of the provisions of the Act.

21. Disclosure of disputed data by a credit institution.- If, in the opinion of a credit institution, correction of any inaccuracy, error or discrepancy as referred to in rule 20, is likely to take further time on account of any dispute raised by a borrower in respect thereof, with the credit institution or before a court of law, or any forum, or tribunal or any other authority, in such cases the credit institution shall adopt the following course of action, namely:-

- (a) if the disputed data has not been furnished, in such event while furnishing such data to a credit information company or making disclosure thereof to anyone else, in accordance with the Act, the credit institution shall include an appropriate remark to reflect the nature of the inaccuracy, error or discrepancy found therein and the pendency of the dispute in respect thereof and in any subsequent disclosure of such disputed data the credit institution shall also disclose such remark; or
- (b) in case such credit information has already been furnished to a credit information company or disclosed to anyone else, the credit institution shall inform the credit information company or the individual, as the case may be, to include the remark about such inaccuracy, error or discrepancy and the pending dispute in respect thereof, against such data, information or credit information received by them from the credit institution; and
- (c) the entries in books of the concerned credit institution shall be taken into account for the purposes of credit information relating to such borrower as provided under the provisions of second proviso to sub-section (3) of section 21 of the Act.

22. Updating of the credit information by credit Institution. -

Without prejudice to the provisions of rule 21, if there is any change in the data, information or credit information, already furnished to a credit information company due to change in the liability of the borrower or his guarantor, on account of write off in full or in part of the amount of outstanding dues of the credit institution or the repayment thereof by the borrower or his guarantor, or release of the guarantor, or any scheme of arrangement entered into between the credit institution and the borrower, or the final settlement of the amount payable by the borrower pursuant to any scheme of arrangement with the credit institution, as the case may be, or on account of any such other reason, the credit institution shall,-

- (a) continue to update such data, information or credit information promptly or in any event, by the end of each reporting period not exceeding thirty days until the termination of the respective account relating to such credit information; and

- (b) furnish an updated credit information to the credit information company at the earliest in this behalf.

23. Data security and system integrity safeguards. - Every credit institution shall adopt such procedure and measures in relation to their daily operations as may be necessary to safeguard and protect the data, information and the credit information maintained by them, against any unauthorised access to or misuse of the same including the following safeguards, namely: -

- (a) adopting the minimum standards for physical and operational security including site design, fire protection, environmental protection;
- (b) keeping the round the clock physical security;
- (c) issuance of instructions for removing, labeling and securing the removable electronic storage media at the end of the session or working day;
- (d) providing physical access to the critical systems to be on dual control basis;
- (e) making comprehensive succession plan for the key personnel so as to ensure that non-availability of a person does not disrupt the system;
- (f) keeping of paper based records, documentation and backup data containing all confidential information in secured and locked containers or filing system, separately from all other records;
- (g) adopting adequate procedure to ensure that the records could be accessed only by authorized persons on need to know basis;
- (h) providing details of creation of firewalls and stress testing of systems through ethical hacking to evaluate and ensure its robustness;
- (i) protecting systems against obsolescence;
- (j) adopting procedure for change of software and hardware ;
- (k) providing for disaster recovery and management plan; and
- (l) taking necessary steps while handing over systems for maintenance to prevent unauthorized access or loss of data, information and credit information maintained by them.

STEPS AND SECURITY SAFEGUARDS
TO BE TAKEN BY CREDIT INFORMATION COMPANIES AND SPECIFIED USERS
FOR ENSURING
ACCURACY, COMPLETENESS AND PROTECTION OF DATA

24. Formulation and adoption of the procedure by credit information companies. - (1) Every credit information company, in existence on the commencement of these rules within three months of the commencement of these rules, and every credit information company to whom a certificate of registration has been granted, after the commencement of these rules within three months of such grant, shall take such requisite steps, as it may deem necessary, in relation to their operations and accordingly formulate policy and procedure duly approved by their Board of Directors and adopt the same with respect to the following operations, namely:-

- (a) collection, processing and collating of data, information and credit information relating to their borrower, or client, obtained and received by them from a member credit institution or credit information company, as the case may be;
- (b) steps to be taken for ensuring security and protection of such data, information and the credit information maintained by them;
- (c) appropriate and necessary steps for maintaining an accurate, complete and updated data, information and credit information, in respect of their borrower, or client, and to ensure the accuracy and completeness thereof while furnishing the same to a specified user or making disclosure thereof to anyone else, in accordance with the provisions of the Act; and
- (d) transmitting data, information and credit information through secured medium.

(2) Without prejudice to the generality of the policy as formulated and procedure as adopted under sub-rule (1), every credit information company shall include in its such policy and procedure, the following, namely:-

- (a) it would have tested and documented internal system for evidencing robust matching levels which may in case of need be used also to provide requisite evidence and necessary examples to the Reserve Bank;
- (b) the procedure and parameters for verifying and providing certificate to the effect that the entire data, information and credit information, obtained and received by them, from a member credit institution, a credit information company, or from any other permissible source, as the case may be, in respect of their borrower, or client, has been collated without any distortion thereof and such data, information and credit information maintained by them is accurate, updated and complete with reference to the date of such certification by the credit institution, or the credit information company, by whom such data, information and credit information has been provided;

(c) the procedure for making a notation in such data, information and credit information obtained and received by them from a member credit institution, or from any other permissible source, as the case may be and maintained by them in respect of their borrower or client which is not updated on the date of carrying out necessary verification and certification as per clause (b) with reference to the date up to which the same was certified by credit institution or the credit information company to be accurate, updated and complete.

25. Accuracy of data provided by a credit information company.-

(1) Every credit information company shall adopt appropriate procedure with the approval of the Reserve Bank-

(a) for verifying the data, information or credit information maintained by them on the basis of the information obtained by them from credit institution or credit information company, as the case may be; and

(b) to ensure, before furnishing data, information or credit information to a specified user or making disclosure thereof to anyone else in accordance with the Act, that such data, information or credit information maintained by them is accurate, complete and updated with reference to the date mentioned therein by the respective credit institution or credit information company, as the case may be.

(2) If, for any reason beyond control, it is not possible for any credit information company to furnish complete and updated data, information or credit information, as per sub-rule (1), the credit information company shall make a remark with reference to the date up to which its accuracy and completeness has been verified and found to be correct.

(3) Subject to the provisions of sub-sections (2) and (3) of section 21 of the Act, in respect of alteration and updating of credit information on request of a borrower in accordance with said provisions, if a credit information company after furnishing the data, information or credit information to a specified user or making disclosure thereof to anyone else, in accordance with the Act, discovers of its own, or is informed about any inaccuracy, error or discrepancy in respect of the data, information or credit information, the credit information company shall, -

- (a) latest by seventh day, send the intimation to the specified user or the individual, as the case may be, of such inaccuracy, error or discrepancy;
 - (b) take immediate steps to correct such inaccuracy, error or discrepancy; and
 - (c) forward the corrected particulars of the data, information or credit information to the specified user or the individual, as the case may be, within a period of thirty days from the date when the credit information company had discovered or was informed of such inaccuracy, error or discrepancy.
- (4) If, for any reason beyond control, it is not possible for the credit information company to furnish corrected information as per sub-rule (3), the credit information company shall inform the specified user or the individual, as the case may be, of the steps taken by it at their end for correction of such inaccuracy, error or discrepancy and also the reasons for its inability to comply with the provisions of sub-rule (3);
- (5) Any credit information company failing to take steps as per sub-rule (3), without any sufficient reason for its inability to comply with the said provisions, shall be liable for contravention of the provisions of the Act.

26. Disclosure of disputed data by a credit information company.

– If, in the opinion of a credit information company, correction of any inaccuracy, error or discrepancy referred to in rule 20, is likely to take further time on account of any dispute raised by a borrower in respect thereof with the credit institution or before a court of law, or any forum, or tribunal or any other authority, in such cases the credit information company shall adopt the following course of action, namely:-

- (a) if the disputed data, information or credit information has not been furnished, in such event while furnishing such data, information or credit information to a specified user or making disclosure thereof to anyone else, in accordance with the Act, the credit information company shall include an appropriate remark to reflect the nature of the inaccuracy, error or discrepancy found therein and pendency of the dispute in respect thereof and in any subsequent disclosure of such disputed data, information or credit information, the credit information company shall disclose such remark;

- (b) in case such data, information or credit information has already been furnished to a specified user or disclosed to anyone else, the credit information company shall inform the specified user or the individual, as the case may be, to include remark of such inaccuracy, error or discrepancy therein and the pending dispute in respect thereof; and
- (c) the entries in books of the concerned credit institution shall be taken into account for the purposes of credit information relating to such borrower as provided under the provisions of second proviso to sub-section (3) of section 21 of the Act.

27. Formulation and adoption of the procedure by specified user.-

(1) Every specified user, in existence on the commencement of these rules within three months of such commencement, and every specified user, coming into existence after the commencement of these rules within three months of its becoming member of a credit information company, shall take such requisite steps as it may deem necessary for ensuring and verifying the accuracy and completeness of data, information or credit information received from a credit information company before using the same in relation to a borrower, or a client, in relation to their operations and to ensure protection thereof from unauthorised access, or use and formulate and adopt an appropriate policy and procedure in this behalf with the approval of their Board of Directors.

(2) Without prejudice to the generality of the policy as formulated and procedure as adopted under sub-rule (1), every specified user shall include in such policy and procedure, the provisions relating to the following, namely:-

- (a) the level of officers to be authorised to access the data, information and credit information received from a credit information company;
- (b) the parameters to be adopted for satisfying itself about the identity of the respective borrower, or the client whose credit report is to be taken into account by the specified user;
- (c) the appropriate measures so as to ensure that they do not fail to take note of any remark included by a credit information company in respect of any credit information; and
- (d) procedure relating to receiving data, information and credit information through secured medium.
