

The Work Number Sample Researched Income Verification

The Work Number® is the largest central source for employment and income verification fulfillment. We have a database with millions of records instantly available; however, there are times you will need to verify information on an individual not currently on our database. In these cases, The Work Number team will conduct a manual and researched verification. We independently validate the employer's phone number, and we also provide you with a workflow showing you the process of how we completed your verification.
