Equifax Connector Platforms Overview

Equifax® has a number of connector relationships which enable you to connect to The Work Number® portal through your LOS (Loan Origination System), POS (Point of Sale), or Servicing System without having to leave that platform.

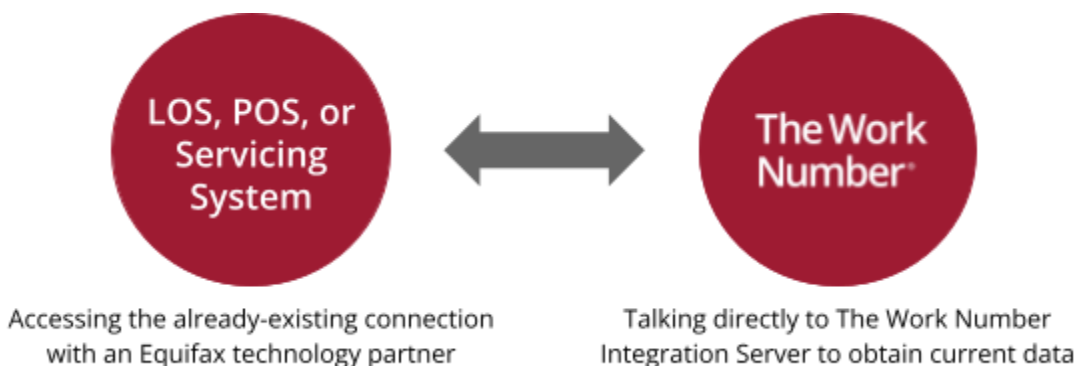

Key Features

Accessing The Work Number through an existing connector platform provides:

- Ease of use - Leverage the connector integration without having to disrupt your workflow.
- Speed to production - Quick access to The Work Number via industry leading loan origination and financial tools without a lengthy software development cycle.
- Reduced development costs - Seamless integration with The Work Number while reducing development costs.
- Dedicated technology resources - Ongoing technology and integration support from the Verifications Enablement team at The Work Number.

How It Works

Equifax has relationships with valued technology partners that are already integrated to connect directly to The Work Number, which streamlines the process of obtaining verifications by:
