

The Work Number

Sample Verification of Income (VOI)

The verification of income contains basic employment information about an employee's job, their employer, their title, employment status (active, inactive) and the length of time with the employer, as well as their income. The income information can contain wages, bonuses and commission. This type of verification is typically used for granting credit.

The statement above is an official verification generated from The Work Number. Because this verification is system-generated with data that originated directly from the employer's payroll system, it is tamper-resistant and represents a higher level of authenticity than employee-limited copies of paystubs or W-2s. If any information is missing, it is because the employer did not provide this information for inclusion in The Work Number verification. Note: If this person left this employer and was rehired later, the "Total Time with Employer" amount will likely be understated and will only reflect the most recent consecutive months of service.
