

Rodolfo O. Ploder

EVP and President Workforce Solutions

Rudy Ploder is President of Workforce Solutions. This Equifax business unit is a leading provider of human resource, compliance, analytics and verification services. An insights-driven organization, Workforce Solutions helps U.S. employers strategically manage their workforces and also helps credit lenders effectively mitigate risk.

Prior to leading Workforce Solutions, Ploder led U.S. Information Solutions at Equifax and was responsible for all U.S.-based services that provide businesses with consumer and commercial information and insights, specifically related to risk management, fraud, marketing and a variety of industry-specific solutions. Ploder also led the company's International unit, with responsibility for all aspects of operations in 11 countries in Latin America, Europe and Canada.

Prior to Equifax, Ploder held executive positions with MCI, SkyTel Communications, MobileComm and SBC Communications, where he served in both corporate development and expansion-focused roles.

Ploder holds a bachelor's degree in agricultural engineering from Buenos Aires University, Argentina, and a master's degree in business administration from Kansas State University.
