Network Verification Services from Equifax — a premier service provider

We have the coverage you need to easily keep your process moving forward.

Equifax is committed to providing you with the most complete and efficient verification coverage available. When a verification of employment or income (VOE/I) information is not instantly available through The Work Number®, you can seamlessly waterfall to our manual verification solutions.

Our extensive experience in verifications and investments in technology have enabled us to successfully shape processes that meet modern expectations. Designed to deliver market-leading turnaround times for lenders and other verifiers, our VOE/I solutions help customers gather data, such as information between payroll cycles or payment breakdowns, from confirmed sources. In providing our Network Verification Services, we act as an agent of the verifier and efficiently contact employers to request verifications needed to move your business and work forward.

Key advantages of our verification solutions

Unparalleled speed

We deliver faster results by leveraging our extensive working relationships with millions of employers.

Quick and consistent results

Our U.S.-based team delivers fast results and follows standard processes to ensure maximum performance.

Emerging technology and automation

We have the capability to connect with an employer's authorized representative and complete multiple orders in a single contact.

Be confident in the results

We request employment information for each order and later provide a report on how we completed the verification.
